'LXVI. And whereas, by an Act passed in the thirty-second Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King 'George the Second, intituled, An Act for augmenting the Salaries of the Puisne Judges in the Court of King's 'Bench, the Judges in the Court of Common Pleas, the Barons of the Coif in the Court of Exchequer at West- 'minster, the Judges in the Court of Session and Exchequer in Scotland, and Justices of Chester, and the Great 'Sessions for the Counties in Wales, certain Stamp Duties upon Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, were grant- 'ed, from the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine, to be applied for the Augmenta- 'tion of the Salaries of the several Judges in England, the Chief Baron and other Barons in the Court of Ex- 'chequer at Westminster, the Justices of Chester, and the Justices of the Great Sessions for the Counties in 'Wales; and to be paid to the said Judges, Barons, and Justices, in every Year, at such Time or Times, 'and in such Manner, as the Salaries to the said Judges then were, or had accustomarily been paid; and by 'two other Acts of the second and fifth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, several additional Stamp 'Duties were granted, and, with the aforementioned Duties established by the said Act of the thirty-second 'Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, were made one joint Fund for Payment of 'the said Augmentation of the Salaries of the said Judges, Barons, and Justices; and by an Act of the twelfth 'Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the further Augmentation of the Salaries of the 'Justices of Chester, and the Great Sessions for the Counties in Wales, the said Joint Fund was charged, from 'the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and seventy-two, with the Payment of a further Augmenta- 'tion to the Salaries of the said Justices of Chester, and the Justices of the Great Sessions for the Counties in 'Wales; and by an Act of the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his said present Majesty, a further Addi- 'tion and Augmentation of the Salaries of the Puisne Judges of the Courts of King's Bench and Common 'Pleas at Westminster, and to the Chief Baron and other Barons of the Coif of Exchequer at Westminster, is 'also charged upon the said Joint Fund, and upon the Surplus of the Monies arising in the Receipt of the Ex- 'chequer, of the Deductions of Sixpence in the Pound out of all the Monies paid upon all Salaries, Pensions, 'Annuities, and other Payments from the Crown, established by an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth 'Year of the Reign of King George the First, after satisfying all the Annuities and other Payments charged on 'the same: And whereas the said several Stamp Duties on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, granted as 'aforesaid, are by this present Act consolidated, and in consequence thereof will, from and after the tenth 'Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, be incorporated with, and become a Part of

'the Monies to be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer for the Stamp Duties directed to be applied as 'Part of the Consolidated Fund by this Act established; and the said Deductions of Sixpence in the Pound 'out of all Monies paid upon all Salaries, Pensions, Annuities, and other Payments from the Crown, is also 'hereby made a Part of the same Fund:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That out of the Monies that shall be and remain in the Exchequer, on the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, of the Taxes, Duties, and Revenues, which shall compose the said Consolidated Fund, there shall be paid to the said several Judges, so much Money as shall be due and owing to them on Account of the several aforementioned Augmentations, computing the same from the Time or Times to which they were last paid, to the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven; and from that Time there shall be paid to the said Judges, out of the Monies that shall arise and be paid into the Exchequer of the said Duties and Revenues granted by this Act, the several and respective annual following Sums, being the Amount of the Augmentations granted as aforesaid; videlicet, to the three Puisne Judges of the Court of King's Bench, the Sum of nine hundred Pounds per Annum each; to the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, the Sum of five hundred Pounds per Annum; to the three Puisne Judges of the said Court of Common Pleas, nine hundred Pounds per Annum each; to the Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer in Westminster, one thousand five hundred Pounds per Annum, to the three other Barons of the said Court, nine hundred Pounds per Annum each; to the Chief Justice of Chester, the annual Sum of five hundred Pounds; to the second Justice of Chester, three hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum; and to each of the Justices of the Great Sessions for the Counties in Wales, three hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum each; the said Salaries to be issued and paid to the said Judges by quarterly Payments; videlicet, on the tenth Day of October, the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, and the fifth Day of July; the first Payment thereof to be due and to be payable on the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven.

From the Consolidated Fund there shall be paid the Arrears of the Augmentations to the Judges Salaries at July 5, 1787; and thereafter the said Augmentations shall continue to be paid out of the said Fund.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted and declared, That all other Annuities whatever, charged upon, or made payable out of, the Aggregate Fund, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, shall, from and after the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, be charged and chargeable upon, and shall be payable and paid out of, all or any of the Duties, Revenues, and Incomes of the said Consolidated Fund, in the same Manner, and according to the same Priorities, as the same were directed and provided by the several Acts by which they were granted.

'this Act, until the End of four Calendar Months from the Commencement of the first Session of the Parliament of Ireland which shall hereafter sit during the Space of four Calendar Months, without Prorogation 'or Dissolution, and from the End of that Time, every Ship or Vessel which shall, by virtue of the Authority of any Act that may be passed in the said Parliament of Ireland, be qualified and registered in any 'of the Ports of the said Kingdom of Ireland, under similar Regulations and Restrictions to those therein 'contained, shall continue to enjoy, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, all the Privileges and Advantages of a British-built Ship or a foreign-built Ship, owned by his Majesty's Subjects, as the Case may 'be, according to the Provisions of this Act: And whereas by an Act of the Parliament of Ireland, passed 'in this present Session of the said Parliament, intituled, An Act for the further Increase and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation, Regulations and Restrictions for qualifying and registering Ships and 'Vessels in the Ports of the said Kingdom of Ireland are enacted and provided, similar to those contained in 'the said before-mentioned Act of the Parliament of Great Britain:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Ship or Vessel which shall be duly registered in any Port in the Kingdom of Ireland, according to the Regulations and Restrictions of the before-mentioned Act, passed in the Parliament of that Kingdom, and shall obtain a Certificate thereof, shall enjoy, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, all the Privileges and Advantages of a British-built Ship or foreign-built Ship owned by his Majesty's Subjects, as the Case may be.

Vessels registered in Ireland according to an Act of the Parliament of that Kingdom of the present Session, to enjoy all the Privileges of Vessels owned by his Majesty's Subjects.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Ship or Vessel belonging to his Majesty's Subjects residing in the said Kingdom of Ireland, being duly qualified and registered according to the Laws in force at and immediately before the Commencement of the said Act, so passed in the Parliament of that Kingdom, shall continue in like Manner to enjoy all the Privileges and Advantages of a British-built Ship, or foreign-built Ship owned by his Majesty's Subjects, as the Case may be, during the Time or Times which are or may be appointed by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Revenue in the said Kingdom, pursuant to the Powers thereby given to the said Commissioners to appoint the Times when the Registration required by the said Act is to be made; but that at the End or Expiration of the said Time or Times, so to be appointed by the said Commissioners, no Ship or Vessel, belonging to the Kingdom of Ireland, which ought to be registered in the Ports thereof, shall have or enjoy such Privileges or Advantages, unless such Ship or Vessel shall have been registered, and shall have obtained a Certificate thereof in pursuance of the before-mentioned Act, passed in the said Parliament of Ireland.

If any such Vessel should be prevented from returning to the Port to which she belongs in due Time, and should touch at a Port in Great Britain, &c. the Commissioners of the Customs may permit her to clear out, and return to her proper Port in Ireland.

B.* have not "(nor have any of the other Owners, to the best of my Knowledge or Belief) taken an Oath of Allegiance "to any foreign State whatever, except under the Terms of some Capitulation [describing the Particulars "thereof]:" Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Oath which shall have been, or may be taken, for the sole Purpose of acquiring the Rights of a Citizen or Burgher in any foreign City or Town in Europe, to be enjoyed during the Time that the Person or Persons taking such Oath shall reside in such City or Town, and for a limited Time after such Residence shall have expired, shall not be deemed an Oath of Allegiance to a foreign State, within the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act.

Recital of Part of the Oath required to be taken by the Act 26 Geo. 3. c. 60.

No Oath taken to acquire a temporary Right as a Citizen, during Residence in a foreign State, to be deemed an Oath of Allegiance to such State.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in the said last-mentioned Act contained shall prevent the Persons thereby authorised from making Registry of Ships and Vessels, and granting Certificates thereof to Ships and Vessels wholly owned by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or any other Body Corporate within this Kingdom, all other Requisites of the said Act being complied with, upon the following Oath being taken and subscribed by the Secretary of the said United Company, or other Body Corporate, or by any other Officer authorised by such Company or Body Corporate (instead of the Oath directed to be taken by the said Act), before the Person or Persons duly authorised to make such Registry and grant such Certificates respectively; which Oath they are hereby respectively impowered to administer:

' VI. And whereas by the said Act, passed in the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, it is ' enacted, That, at the Time of obtaining the Certificate of Registry therein directed, sufficient Security by ' Bond shall be given to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by the Master, and such of the Owners ' as shall personally attend, as is therein required, such Security to be approved of and taken by the Person ' or Persons therein authorised to make such Registry, and to grant a Certificate thereof at the Port or Place ' in which such Certificate shall be granted, in the Penalties, and on the Conditions, among others in the ' said Act mentioned, that such Certificate shall not be sold, lent, or otherwise disposed of: And whereas ' Doubts have arisen, whether such Bond can be legally executed by the Master of the Vessel at any other ' Port or Place than that at which the Vessel is, by the said Act, required to be registered;' be it therefore

From June 1, 1787, the Commissioners of the Customs, &c. may permit the Bond required on obtaining a Certificate of the Registry of a Vessel, to be executed wherever they think proper.

enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England for the Time being, or any four or more of them, or the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in Scotland for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the Governor, or Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief of the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey, or of the Isle of Man, or of any of the Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories, which now belong, or may hereafter belong or be in the Possession of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in Asia, Africa, or America, shall, and they are hereby authorised to permit, in any Case where it shall appear to them to be expedient, such Bond to be taken before any Person or Persons whatever, and in such Manner, and at such Port or Place, as they shall respectively judge fitting and necessary; and every such Person or Persons shall and are hereby authorised to take such Bond, and such Bond when so taken shall be valid and of the like Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if the same had been taken by the Person or Persons authorised by the said Act to make Registry and grant a Certificate thereof.

Whenever the Master of a Vessel is changed, fresh Security, to be given, &c.

' VII. And whereas no Provision is made in the said Act, passed in the said twenty-sixth Year of his pre- ' sent Majesty's Reign, requiring fresh Security by Bond to be given whenever the Master of a Ship or Ves- ' sel, registered in pursuance thereof, shall be changed;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and so often as the Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel, registered in Manner therein directed, shall be changed, the Person who shall become Master, or take the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall give Security by Bond, to be taken in the Manner and under the Penalties and Conditions required by the said Act and this present Act; and upon such fresh Security being from Time to Time given, and the same being made to appear by Indorsement on the original Bond by the Officers in whose Custody it shall be, such original Bond, so far as it relates to the former Master, shall from thenceforth be null and void (except with respect to any Breach or Breaches of the Conditions of such Bond which may have been committed before such Indorsement).

Vessels, not exceeding 30 Tons Burthen, and not having a fixed Deck, may be employed in the Fishery at Newfoundland, &c. without being registered.

' VIII. Vessels built at Newfoundland, &c. for European Owners, may be registered there, upon the Ships Agents taking the requisite Oath;

' IX. And whereas many Ships or Vessels have been, and may hereafter be built in the said Island of New- ' foundland, and in those Parts of the Provinces of Quebeck, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, adjacent to ' the Gulph of Saint Lawrence, and to the North of Cape Canso, or in the Islands within the said Limits, on ' account of Owners residing in his Majesty's European Dominions, which Ships or Vessels, by reason of ' the Absence of all the Owners, cannot be registered in those Places, in pursuance and under the Provisions ' of the said Act, so passed in the said twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Ships or Vessels shall and may be registered in the said Island of Newfoundland and its Dependencies, or in the Parts of the said Provinces of Quebeck, Nova Scotia, or New Brunswick, adjacent to the Gulph of Saint Lawrence, and to the North of Cape Canso, or in the Islands within the said Limits (before the Persons authorised respectively at those Places to make Registry, and to grant Certificates thereof, in pursuance of the said Act), upon the Husbands or principal Agents of the said Ships or Vessels taking the Oath required by the said Act, instead of the same being taken by the Owners thereof; and the Certificates so granted shall be of the like Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if they had been granted upon the Oath of the Owners respectively, until such Time as such Ships or Vessels respectively shall arrive at some Port in his Majesty's European Dominions, where they may be respectively registered upon the Oath of the respective Owner or Owners thereof, but no longer; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding: And whenever such Ships or Vessels shall first but such Ships, on their Arrival in Europe, must arrive in any such Port in his Majesty's European Dominions, the Certificates of Registry, granted in pursuance of this Act, shall be utterly null and void, and shall be delivered up to be cancelled; and such Ships or Vessels shall and are hereby required to be respectively registered de novo, upon the Oath of the respective Owners being taken, and the other Requisitions of the said Act being complied with.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons whatever to import or bring into Great Britain from Gibraltar, in any Ship or Vessel which, before the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, did truly without Fraud wholly belong to his Majesty's Dominions, or are of the Built of his Majesty's Dominions, navigated and registered according to Law, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, being the Growth or Production of the Dominions of the Emperor of Morocco, and which shall have been imported into Gibraltar directly from any Part of the said Dominions not lying or being to the Southward of the Port of Mogadore, in Ships or Vessels belonging to or of the Built of his Majesty's Dominions, as before described, navigated and registered according to Law, or in Ships or Vessels belonging to the Subjects of the said Emperor of Morocco, upon Payment of the same Duties, and none other, as such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize are or shall be liable to upon being imported into Great Britain directly from Africa.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Goods or Commodities whatever, or any Ships, Vessels, Boats, Horses, Cattle, or Carriages, shall be seized as forfeited by virtue or in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Revenue of Customs, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, for the Time being, and the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland, or any three or more of them, for the Time being, on Evidence given to their Satisfaction that the Forfeiture arose without any Design or Intention of Fraud in the Proprietor or Proprietors of such Goods or Commodities, Ships, Vessels, Boats, Horses, Cattle, or Carriages, to order the same to be restored to such Proprietor or Proprietors, in such Manner, and on such Terms and Conditions, as under the Circumstances of the Case shall appear to the said Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively to be reasonable, and as they shall think fit to direct; and if the said Proprietor or Proprietors shall comply with the Terms and Conditions prescribed by such Commissioners in England and Scotland respectively, it shall not be lawful for the Officer or Officers who shall seize such Goods or Commodities, Ships, Vessels, Boats, Horses, Cattle, or Carriages, or any other Person or Persons whatever, on his or their Behalf, to proceed in any Manner for the Condemnation thereof; but if such Proprietor or Proprietors shall not comply with the Terms and Conditions prescribed by the said Commissioners respectively, such Officer or Officers shall be at Liberty, and is and are hereby authorised to proceed for the Condemnation of such Goods or Commodities, Ships, Vessels, Boats, Horses, Cattle, or Carriages, as if this Law had not been made: Provided always, That if such Proprietor or Proprietors shall accept the Terms and Conditions prescribed by the said Commissioners of the Customs respectively, such Proprietor or Proprietors shall not have, or be entitled to any Recompence or Damage on account of the Seizure or Detention of such Goods or Commodities,

'XVI. And whereas by an Act, passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties, together with the other Duties composing the Publick Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, the Produce or Manufacture of the European Dominions of the French King into this Kingdom, and for applying certain unclaimed Monies, remaining in the Exchequer for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt, the Duties imposed upon 'Timber, Staves, and other Species of Wood, in lieu of the former Duties on those Articles thereby repealed, are in many Instances increased: And whereas standing Contracts may have been made before 'the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, by the Importers or Proprietors of 'Timber, Staves, and other Species of Wood, for serving Persons therewith respectively, to be delivered, 'in Point of Time, after the said tenth Day of May;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said tenth Day of May, the Importers or Proprietors of such Timber, Staves, and other Species of Wood, the Duties on which have been by the said Act increased respectively, and which shall be delivered after the said tenth Day of May, in pursuance of such Contracts, shall be allowed to add to the Prices respectively agreed for in such Contracts so much as the Duties charged by the said recited Act respectively exceeded the Duties payable upon such Timber, Staves, and other Species of Wood, at and immediately before the said tenth Day of May; and such Importers or Proprietors shall, by virtue of this Act, be paid such Sum as the Duties so increased shall amount to.

27 Geo. 3. c. 13. recited.

From May 10, 1787, the Difference between the Duties on Wood before and after that Day, may be added to the Price of Wood contracted for before, but not delivered till after that Day.

'XVII. And whereas by the said Act, passed in this present Session of Parliament, it is among other 'Things enacted and declared, That the Importers or Proprietors of any Cambricks or French Lawns, 'which, before the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, shall have been imported 'into Great Britain for Exportation from any Part or Place in the European Dominions of the French 'King, and lodged according to Law in a Warehouse belonging to his Majesty, or which shall, on or be'fore the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, be lawfully so imported into 'Great Britain for that Purpose, shall, after the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-'seven, be at Liberty to take and receive the same into their own Custody and Possession, either for Sale 'and Consumption in this Kingdom or otherwise, such Importers or Proprietors first making a regular 'Entry of all such Cambricks or French Lawns with the proper Officer of the Customs, and paying such 'Duty for the same as Cambricks or French Lawns imported after the tenth Day of May one thousand seven 'hundred and eighty-seven, are by the said Act made subject and liable to: And whereas it is just that the 'Duty paid or to be paid down according to Law, on warehousing such Cambricks or French Lawns, 'shall be taken and deemed to be in Part of the Duty imposed by the said Act;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Importers or Proprietors of such Cambricks or French Lawns shall, on taking the same out of such Warehouse in pursuance of the said Act, pay so much Money, and no more, by way of Duty, as, together with the Sum paid down or to be paid down as aforesaid, on lodging the same in such Warehouse, shall respectively amount to the Duty imposed by the said Act upon Cambricks and French Lawns imported respectively into Great Britain in pursuance of the said Act, after the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

French Cambricks imported for Exportation before May 10, 1787, may be taken out of his Majesty's Warehouses, on Payment of the Difference between the Sum paid on their being warehoused, and the Duties imposed by 27 Geo. 3. c. 13.;

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Cambricks or French Lawns shall have been imported into Great Britain on or before the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, for Exportation as aforesaid, but which shall not have been lodged as aforesaid in a Warehouse for that Purpose on the said tenth Day of May, the Importers or Proprietors thereof shall have the same delivered to them either for Sale and Consumption in this Kingdom or otherwise, upon making a regular Entry thereof with the proper Officer of the Customs, and paying such Duty for the same as Cambricks or French Lawns imported after the said tenth Day of May are by the said Act made subject and liable to respectively.

and such Cambricks not having been warehoused, may be delivered to the Proprietors, on their making Entry thereof, and paying the said Duties.

'XIX. And whereas divers Persons may have incurred Penalties for Offences committed against the Laws 'now in force, prohibiting the Importation of Cambricks or French Lawns into this Kingdom otherwise than 'by Licence and for Exportation, and prohibiting the Wear or Use thereof in this Kingdom, by reason of such 'Persons having had the same in their Custody or Possession for Sale or otherwise;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatever (other than such as are now under Prosecution for the same) shall be prosecuted by Bill, Plaint, Information, or Action of Debt, for any Penalty or Penalties incurred on or before the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, on account of having had in their Custody or Possession, for Sale or otherwise, any such Cambricks or French Lawns, but that all such Penalties shall be wholly pardoned and released; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Persons, except those under Prosecution, shall be prosecuted for having had in their Possession French Cambricks for Sale prior to May 10, 1787.

'XX. And whereas by the said last before-recited Act it is amongst other Things enacted, That, from 'and after the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, all and singular the Subsidies, 'Customs, Impositions, or Duties whatever (respecting the Revenue of Customs), and all and singular the 'Duties of Excise, payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Par'liament in force, upon the Importation of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize into Great Britain, shall 'cease and determine, save and except as therein is excepted; and that in lieu and instead thereof, from 'and after the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, there shall be raised, levied, 'collected, and paid, unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon the Importation of any Goods, 'Wares, or Merchandize, into the Kingdom of Great Britain, from Parts beyond the Seas, the se'veral Duties of Customs and Excise, as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth Goods, &c. of which no Entries have been made, and on which the Duties have been reduced by 27 Geo. 3. c. 13. to be subject to those Duties only.

'in certain Schedules and Tables to the said Act annexed: And whereas it is expedient that all Goods, 'Wares, or Merchandize, on which the Duties imposed by the said Act are reduced lower than those 'repealed, and which have been imported or brought into this Kindom, but of which Entries have not been 'made, or which shall or may be imported or brought into this Kingdom, on or before the said tenth Day of 'May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, should be charged with the Duties imposed by the said 'Act, and no other;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, on which the Duties have been so reduced, and which have been imported or brought into this Kingdom, of which Entries have not been made, shall be charged with, and shall be subject and liable to the Duties respectively imposed by the said recited Act, and no other.

The Duties imposed by the said Act on Coals, &c. brought Coastwise, to be charged on all Coals which shall be carried by Sea from one Port and landed in another in Great Britain, except where otherwise provided in the said Act.

'XXI. And whereas by the said last before-recited Act, made and passed in this present Session of Parliament, certain Duties of Customs are imposed upon Coals, Culm, and Cinders, brought Coastwise within 'the Kingdom of Great Britain: And whereas Doubts may arise concerning the true Intent and Meaning 'of the Words inserted in the Schedule marked (A), annexed to the said recited Act, as far as the same may 'relate to the Duties to be charged on Coals, Culm, or Cinders, brought or carried Coastwise, or from 'Port to Port in Great Britain;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several and respective Duties of Customs, imposed by the said Act upon Coals, Culm, and Cinders, brought Coastwise within Great Britain, shall be charged and paid upon all Coals, Culm, and Cinders respectively, which shall be shipped or waterborne, in order to be shipped or laid on board any Ship or Vessel to be carried by Sea, and which shall be carried by Sea in any Ship or Vessel from any Port or Place within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and which shall be imported, brought, or landed, in any other Port or Place within the said Kingdom of Great Britain, save and except in such Cases where special Provision is particularly and expressly made to the contrary in the said recited Act, or in the Schedule or Tables annexed thereto.

Duties on Coals brought Coastwise may be secured by Bond;

'XXII. And whereas by the said Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, it is among other 'Things directed, That the Duties on Coals shall be paid in ready Money, without Liberty to bond 'the same: And whereas it is expedient to permit the Duties payable upon Coals brought Coastwise, 'or from any Port or Place, to any other Port or Place within this Kingdom, to be secured by Bond:' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Importer or Proprietor, or for the known Agent or Factor of the Importer or Proprietor of any Coals which shall be brought Coastwise, or from any Port or Place, to any other Port or Place within Great Britain, to secure such Duties by Bond, which Bond shall be given to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in a Penalty equal to double the Amount of such Duties, by such Importer or Proprietor, or such known Agent or Factor, together with the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel in which such Coals shall have been brought Coastwise, or from any Port or Place to any other Port or Place within Great Britain, with Condition that such Importer or Proprietor, or such known Agent or Factor, shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid to the Use of his Majesty, within sixteen Days from the Day of the Date of such Bond, to the Collector of the Duties upon Coals, in the Port, Member, or Creek in this Kingdom, to which such Coals shall have been brought Coastwise, or from any other Port or Place, the full Sum which shall be due and payable for the Coals delivered out of such Ship or Vessel.

but if a Person who has entered into such Bond should be desirous of being bound again before the first Bond be discharged, he may be required, with three Securities, to give Bond in the Penalty of 4,000 l. for due Payment of Duties.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Importer or Proprietor of any Coals brought Coastwise, or from any Port or Place to any other Port or Place within Great Britain, or any Agent of or Factor for such Importer or Proprietor, who shall have entered into Bond as aforesaid, shall be desirous of becoming Security for the Duties on any other Cargo of Coals, during the Time such Bond shall remain undischarged, it shall be lawful for the said Collector of the Duties on Coals to refuse such Importer or Proprietor, or such Agent or Factor, to be again Security for any of the said Duties payable upon Coals, until such Importer or Proprietor, or such Agent or Factor shall, together with three sufficient Securities, to be approved of by such Collector, have given Bond to such Collector, to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the penal Sum of four thousand Pounds, with Condition that such Importer or Proprietor, or such Factor or Agent, shall, from Time to Time, well and truly pay or cause to be paid to the said Collector all such Sum or Sums of Money as are or shall be due and payable by Law for the Duties on any Coals delivered out of any Ship or Vessel, and for the Payment of which Duties such Importer or Proprietor, or such Agent or Factor, shall have entered into Bond as aforesaid.

Duty on Importation of Geneva to be 9d. per Gallon, and Drawback on Exportation, 8d.

'XXIV. And whereas by the Schedule marked (A), annexed to the said Act made and passed in this 'present Session of Parliament, Brandy, of any Country or Place, is charged, on Importation, with Duty 'at nine Pence per Gallon; and Geneva is charged, on Importation, with Duty at five Pence per Gallon: 'And whereas it is expedient that Geneva should pay the like Duty of nine Pence per Gallon, and 'be allowed a Drawback accordingly;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Duties to be raised, levied, collected, and paid, upon Geneva, by virtue and in pursuance of the said Act, shall be after the Rate of nine Pence per Gallon; and such Geneva shall, on Exportation, be allowed a Drawback of eight Pence per Gallon; any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

From June 1, 1787, Ebony unmanufactured, may be imported from Africa Duty-free,

'XXV. And whereas a certain Species of Wood, called Ebony, being the Growth of Africa, is become 'very useful and necessary to Cabinet-makers, and other Artificers in this Kingdom, and it would tend 'to the Improvement of the Manufactures thereof, if Liberty was given to import the same into this King'dom from Africa Duty-free;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to import into this Kingdom directly from any Part of Africa, in British-built Vessels, owned, navigated, and registered according to Law, Wood called Ebony, being the Growth and Product of Africa,

Africa, provided the same shall be unmanufactured, without paying any Subsidy, Custom, or Duty whatever for the same; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the ancient Town of Margate, in the County of Kent, hath, from Time immemorial, had a Pier and Harbour very convenient for, and advantageous to the Trade and Navigation of the Nation at large, in the Preservation of Shipping in Stress of Weather, and in Time of War; as well as for the exporting and importing of many Sorts of Commodities: And whereas the Welfare not only of the said Town of Margate, but of the adjacent Country, depends very much upon the Maintenance of the said Pier; and although an Act of Parliament was passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the First, to enable the Pier Wardens of the said Town of Margate more effectually to recover the ancient and customary Droits for the Support and Maintenance of the said Pier; yet the same, although beneficial in its Effects, so far as its Powers and Provisions extend, hath not been found adequate to all the good Purposes intended: And whereas the ruinous Condition and bad Construction of the present Pier are such, that it would be very beneficial if the same was entirely taken down, and a new Stone Head built in its Room: And whereas, by reason of the great Resort of Nobility and Gentry to the Town of Margate, for the Benefit of bathing in the Sea, and from other Circumstances, the said Town hath very much increased, and is yet continually increasing, both in Extent of Buildings and in Number of Inhabitants; and the Trade of the said Town hath increased, and is increasing, in the like Proportion; and the Streets, Lanes, Highways, and other publick Passages and Places within the said Town of Margate, and also within the Parish of Saint John the Baptist, within which Parish the said Town is situated, by means of such Increase of Trade and Population, and by means of Annoyances and Encroachments, are very dirty and incommodious, and are frequently very difficult of Passage; and it would tend much to the Prosperity of the said Town and Parish, to the Ease and Convenience of the Company resorting thereto, and to the Increase of such Resort, if some more effectual Powers were obtained for the ascertaining, establishing, and recovering of the Droits of the said Pier; and if a new Stone Head was erected in lieu of the present Pier; and if the Streets, Lanes, Highways, and other publick Passages and Places in the said Town, were properly paved, cleansed, lighted, watched, and preserved, and the Highways within the said Parish properly repaired and amended: And whereas there have from Time immemorial been paid certain Droits, called Poundage and Lastage, and other Rates and Duties, which have been confirmed by the Orders and Decrees of divers Lords Wardens of the Cinque Ports, and by the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, of the eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the First; and it is necessary to make more effectual Provision, both for ascertaining and fixing what the said Rates and Duties shall in all future Times be, and for enforcing the due Payment thereof, in case of Refusal or Nonpayment, as also for providing a Fund for the erecting and better securing of the said Pier and Harbour, and for the other Purposes of this Act:' May it therefore please your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Duties and Impositions hereby and herein-after imposed in lieu of the ancient Pier Droits, and also the several other Rates and Assessments herein-after mentioned, shall form one aggregate Fund, and be vested in the Commissioners herein-after named for carrying this Act into Execution.

'IX. And whereas by the said Act made and passed in the said twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his 'present Majesty, certain Duties of Customs and Excise are respectively charged and imposed on foreign 'green Glass Bottles, imported or brought into Great Britain: And whereas it is expedient that the Duties 'of Excise granted by the said Act, should be repealed, and that an additional Duty of Customs should 'be charged and imposed upon foreign green Glass Bottles, imported or brought into this Kingdom:' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, the Duties of Excise, charged and imposed by the said recited Act upon foreign green Glass Bottles imported or brought into Great Britain, shall cease and determine, save and except in all Cases relating to the recovering, allowing, or paying any Arrears thereof respectively, which may, on the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, relating thereto respectively, which shall have been incurred at any Time before the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight; and that there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in ready Money, without any Discount whatever, an additional Duty of Customs of four Shillings and one

'XI. And whereas by an Act made and passed in the sixth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for encouraging the dressing and dying of Woollen Cloths within this Kingdom, by laying a Duty upon Broad Cloth exported white, a Duty of five Shillings was directed to be paid to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, for every white Woollen Cloth, commonly called Broad Cloth, exported out of this Kingdom into foreign Parts: And whereas by an Act made and passed in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties, together with the other Duties composing the Publick Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, the Produce or Manufacture of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies, remaining in the Exchequer for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt; the said Duty, imposed by the said Act, so made and passed in the said sixth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, was repealed, and in lieu thereof a Duty of five Shillings and six Pence the Piece was imposed on the Exportation of white Woollen Cloth commonly called Broad Cloth: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the said Duty of five Shillings and six Pence, so imposed as aforesaid, is not now payable upon any Woollen Cloth, if white, although the same may have been dyed or dressed in this Kingdom:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in the said recited Act, so made and passed in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to charge with Duty any white Woollen Cloth, on the Exportation thereof from this Kingdom into foreign Parts, provided the same shall have been dyed or dressed in this Kingdom.

Duties under this Act to be applied as Duties granted by last recited Act.

'XIII. And whereas by an Act made in the first Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Support of his Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain, the hereditary Revenues of the Crown, and other Revenues granted to his late Majesty King George the Second, for defraying the Expences of his Majesty's Civil Government, were made Part of the Aggregate Fund, and a certain Revenue granted out of the said Fund to his Majesty during his Life; but in the said Act it is provided and enacted, "That the several and respective Duties and Revenues which "were payable to his late Majesty King George the Second, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, "for and during his Life, shall be continued, raised, levied, and paid, during the Life of his present Majesty, in the same Manner only, and subject to the same or the like Charges thereon, as the same were "liable or subject to during his said late Majesty's Life; saving always to all and every Persons, Bodies "Politick and Corporate, their Heirs and Successors, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns (other than "to our said sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Successors, and other than to such Person and Per-

An Act more effectually to secure the Performance of Quarantine, and for amending several Laws relating to the Revenue of Customs.

Preamble. ' WHEREAS by an Act, made and passed in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his late Ma-26 Geo. 2. c. 6. recited. ' jesty King George the Second (intituled, An Act to oblige Ships more effectually to perform their ' Quarantine, and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from foreign Parts into Great Britain ' or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man), various Provisions are made, ' Authorities are given, and Penalties are imposed, for effecting the Purposes intended by the said Act: ' And whereas it is expedient to make further Provisions to oblige Ships and Vessels more effectually to ' perform Quarantine;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, in Addition to the Particulars which the principal Officer of his Majesty's Customs, or such Person as shall be authorised to see Quarantine duly performed, is authorised and required, by the said recited Act, to demand an Account of, from the Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of any Ship or Vessel, which shall attempt to enter into any Port or Place in Great Britain or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, and of which Particulars so demanded, the said Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, is required, by the said recited Act, to give a true Account of, under the Penalties by the said Act inflicted; the said principal Officer of his Majesty's Customs, or such Person as shall be authorised to see Quarantine duly performed, shall, and is hereby required to demand of the said Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel; and the said Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall, upon such Demand, give a true Account of the following Particulars; (that is to say), Whether his Ship or Vessel touched at the Isle of Rhodes, the Morea, or any Part of the Coast of Africa within the Mediterranean or the Levant Seas, or the Port of Magadore; or whether any of the Ship's Company, or any other Person on board his Ship or Vessel, had, during the Voyage homewards, in any Manner whatever, any Communication with any Ship or Vessel coming from any of those Places? What Pilot or Pilots, or other Persons from the Shores of the Kingdom of Great Britain, the Islands of Scilly, Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, have been on board his Ship or Vessel, or had any Communication with his Ship's Company in any Manner whatever during the Voyage homewards? And whether any of his Ship's Company had been sick, and of what Disorder, in the Course of the Voyage, or were so at the Time the Particulars are demanded? And in case such Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall, upon such Demand as aforesaid, give an untrue or false Answer to any of the Particulars required by this present Act, such Commander, Master, or other Person, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds, to be recovered, disposed of, and applied in like Manner as the Penalty inflicted by the said recited Act, for not making a true Discovery of the Particulars required thereby, may be recovered, disposed of, and applied.

From July 5, 1788, in addition to the Particulars authorised by the recited Act, the principal Officer of the Customs, &c. to demand of the Commander of any Ship the further Particulars herein specified.

Commanders giving untrue Answers, to forfeit 200l.

Notice of Regulations in force touching Qua-

' II. And whereas by the Laws now in force it may be deemed necessary, in certain Cases, that the ' Person or Persons offending against the same should have actual Notice of the Orders in Council of ' his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, touching and respecting Quarantine: And whereas it is frequently im'possible to prove such actual Notice;' therefore be it enacted, That it shall not be necessary to give any actual Notice of any Order or Orders of his Majesty in Council, or of any Regulations therein contained, which are now in force touching and respecting Quarantine; and that it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by any Order or Orders in Council hereafter to be made, to limit and fix a Time or Times, after which the Publication of such Order or Orders in the London Gazette shall be deemed and taken to be sufficient Notice to all Persons concerned, of all and every such Order or Orders in Council of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors.

rantine, not necessary to be given. Publication in the Gazette of future Orders in Council, to be sufficient Notice.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Commander, Master, or other Person having the Charge of any Ship or Vessel liable to the Performance of Quarantine, shall and is hereby required, from and after the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, in case of meeting or falling in with any Ship or Vessel at Sea, or within four Leagues of the Coast of Great Britain or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, to hoist a particular Signal, to denote that his Vessel is liable to Quarantine; such Signal, for the Day Time, to be a large yellow Flag at the Main Top-mast Head; and, for the Night Time, to be a Light at the same Mast Head; on Failure whereof, such Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, so liable to the Performance of Quarantine, shall forfeit, for every Offence, the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

From Jan. 1, 1789, Ships liable to Quarantine to hoist a Signal, of the Description herein specified, on Penalty of 200 l.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Offence committed contrary to, or in Breach or Violation of, the said herein-recited Act, or this present Act, or any Order or Orders of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, now or hereafter to be made in his or their Privy Council, touching or respecting Quarantine, and notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette, shall and may be tried, heard, and determined, in any County within Great Britain, or in the proper Courts of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, respectively.

Offences may be tried in any County in Great Britain, &c.

'V. And whereas certain Vessels and Boats, after Seizure and Condemnation for Offences against the 'Revenue of Customs and Excise, are now by Law liable to be broken up, and the seizing Officers are 'rewarded with a Moiety of the Produce of the Materials thereof, after deducting the Charges of Con-'demnation and Sale: And whereas the Reward of the seizing Officers in such Case is in general very 'trifling, and in some Instances the Charges of Condemnation and Sale have exceeded the Produce: And 'whereas it is expedient that Officers of the Customs and Excise should have a proper Encouragement to 'induce them to use their utmost Endeavours to seize such Vessels and Boats;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs and Excise in England for the Time being, or any four or more of them, and the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in Scotland for the Time being, or any three or more of them, shall, and they are hereby authorised and required respectively, out of any Monies in their Hands, arising from his Majesty's Share of Seizures, to reward any Officer or Officers of the Customs and Excise, who shall seize any Vessel or Boat, which by Law shall be liable to be broken up after Condemnation, and shall not be used in his Majesty's Service, in the following Manner; (that is to say), they shall respectively reward, and cause to be paid to such Officer or Officers the Sum of ten Shillings per Ton, according to the legal Admeasurement thereof, for all such Vessels and Boats as shall exceed four Tons by Admeasurement; and the Sum of forty Shillings for every such Boat which shall not exceed four Tons; and also one Moiety of the Produce of the Materials of such Vessels and Boats respectively, after deducting therefrom the Charges of Condemnation and Sale.

From June 24, 1788, Officers of the Customs and Excise seizing Vessels liable to be broken up, to be rewarded as herein mentioned.

'VI. And whereas it happens in some Cases, that Vessels seized and condemned under the Laws of 'Customs and Excise for illicit Practices, which are now by Law directed to be broken up, if not sold to 'the Navy, or to the Customs or Excise, are not constructed or fit for the Purposes of Smuggling, and 'may be useful as trading Vessels;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whenever it shall appear to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs and Excise in England and Scotland respectively, that any Vessel under Seizure by their Officers respectively, and which, on Condemnation, is now by Law liable to be so broken up, is of such Built and Construction as not to be proper or calculated for Smuggling, but shall, in their Judgment, be fit and suitable to be used and employed in fair mercantile Trade; in every such Case, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners respectively, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to cause every such Vessel to be sold after Condemnation, instead of being broken up; and the Produce arising from such Sale shall be disposed of and applied in like Manner as the Produce of Vessels seized by the Officers of the Customs and Excise respectively, and which were not liable to be broken up, were heretofore sold, and the Produce thereof disposed of and applied.

Commissioners of the Customs and Excise may cause seized Vessels, not constructed for Smuggling, to be sold instead of broken up.

'VII. And whereas it is expedient, under certain Circumstances, to permit and allow the Delivery of 'Goods or Commodities, upon Security, which shall or may be seized in pursuance of any Act or Acts 'of Parliament made in Great Britain relative to the Trade and Revenue of the British Colonies and 'Plantations in America;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Goods or Commodities shall be seized as forfeited, by virtue or in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament, now or hereafter to be made in Great Britain, relative to the Trade and Revenue of the said Colonies and Plantations in America, it shall and may be lawful for the Judge or Judges of any Court having Jurisdiction to try and determine such Seizures, to order the Delivery of such Goods or Commodities, on sufficient Security by Bond being given to answer double the Value of such Goods in case of Condemnation, such Security to be good and sufficient, and to be taken to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by and in the Name of the Collector of his Majesty's Customs in whose Custody the said Goods may be lodged.

Goods seized under any Act relative to the Trade of the British Colonies in America, may be delivered, on Security being given to answer double the Value.

VIII. And to the End that such Security may be good and sufficient, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs shall, previous to the Execution of the Bond, Directions with regard to taking such Security, &c.

Bond, make ſtrict Inquiry into the Sufficiency of the Sureties propoſed to be bound; and if the ſaid Collector and Comptroller ſhall find them of Ability to anſwer the Sum or Sums in which they are about to become bound, they ſhall then certify the ſame in Writing to the Judge or Judges of ſuch Court reſpectively; and upon the Production of ſuch Certificate, if the Judge is alſo ſatisfied with the Sufficiency of the Sureties propoſed, the Bond ſhall and may be executed, but not otherwiſe; which Bond ſhall be delivered to, and kept in the joint Cuſtody of the ſaid Collector and Comptroller; and in caſe the Goods or Commodities for which ſuch Security ſhall be ſo taken as aforeſaid, ſhall be condemned, the Value thereof ſhall be paid into the Hands of ſuch Collector, conformably to the Condition of the Bond, who ſhall thereupon, with the Conſent or Privity of his Comptroller, cancel the Bond ſo given as aforeſaid.

The Caſes in which Goods may be delivered.

IX. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That this Act ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to authoriſe or permit the Delivery of any Goods or Commodities whatever, but only in Caſes where the ſame ſhall be periſhable, or where the Informer or Proſecutor ſhall delay coming to as ſpeedy a Trial as the Courſe of the Court in which the Proſecution ſhall be commenced, and the Nature of the Circumſtances, will permit; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

From Aug. 1, 1788, Boats of the within Deſcription, if found within four Leagues of the Land, or upon Land, in Great Britain, and Boats of the Built herein ſpecified, to be forfeited.

X. CAP. XXXV.

An Act to enable his Majesty to make such Regulations as may be necessary to prevent the Inconvenience which might arise from the Competition of his Majesty's Subjects and those of the Most Christian King, in carrying on the Fishery on the Coasts of the Island of Newfoundland.

Preamble.

Treaty of Utrecht recited.

Treaty of Paris recited.

Treaty of Versailles recited.

Declaration of the French King of Sept. 3, 1783, recited.

'WHEREAS, by the thirteenth Article of the Treaty concluded at Utrecht on the fourth Day of April, New Stile, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirteen, between her late Majesty Queen Anne and the Most Christian King Louis the Fourteenth, it was, among other Things, agreed, That the Island called Newfoundland, with the adjacent Islands, should, from that Time forward, belong of Right wholly to Britain; and to that End the Town and Fortress of Placentia, and whatever other Places in the said Island were in the Possession of the French, should be yielded and given up, within seven Months from the Exchange of the Ratification of that Treaty, or sooner if possible, by the Most Christian King, to those who had a Commission from the Queen of Great Britain for that Purpose; nor should the Most Christian King, his Heirs or Successors, or any of their Subjects, at any Time thereafter, lay Claim to any Right to the said Island and Islands, or to any Part of them; moreover, it should not be lawful for the Subjects of France to fortify any Place in the said Island of Newfoundland, or to erect any Buildings there, besides Stages made of Boards, and Huts necessary and useful for drying of Fish, or to resort to the said Island beyond the Time necessary for fishing and drying Fish: That it should be allowed to the Subjects of France to catch Fish, and to dry them on Land, on that Part only, and in none other besides that Part of the Island of Newfoundland, which stretches from the Place called Cape Bonavista, to the Northern Point of the said Island, and from thence running down by the Western Side, and reaches as far as the Place called Cape Riche: And whereas, by the fifth Article of the Treaty of Peace, concluded at Paris on the tenth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and sixty-three, between his Majesty and the late Most Christian King Louis the Fifteenth, and his Most Catholick Majesty, it was, among other Things, agreed, that the Subjects of France should have the Liberty of fishing and drying on a Part of the Coast of the Island of Newfoundland, such as is specified in the thirteenth Article of the Treaty of Utrecht, which Article is confirmed and renewed by the present Treaty: And whereas, by the fifth Article of the definitive Treaty of Peace, concluded at Versailles, between his Majesty and the Most Christian King, on the third Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, it was, among other Things, agreed, That his Majesty, the King of Great Britain, should be maintained in his Right to the Island of Newfoundland, and to the adjacent Islands, as the whole were assured to him by the thirteenth Article of the Treaty of Utrecht, excepting the Islands of Saint Pierre and Miquelon, which were ceded in full Right, by the said Treaty of the third Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, to his Most Christian Majesty; and that his Majesty, the Most Christian King, in order to prevent the Quarrels which had before then arisen between the two Nations of England and France, consented to remove the Right of Fishing which belonged to him in virtue of the aforesaid Article of the Treaty of Utrecht, from Cape Bonavista to Cape Saint John, situated on the Eastern Coast of Newfoundland, in fifty Degrees North Latitude, and his Majesty the King of Great Britain consented, on his Part, that the Fishery assigned to the Subjects of his Most Christian Majesty, beginning at the said Cape Saint John, passing to the North, and descending by the Western Coast of the Island of Newfoundland, should extend to the Place called Cape Rage, situate in forty-seven Degrees and fifty Minutes Latitude: The French Fishermen should enjoy the Fishery which was assigned to them by the said Article, as they had the Right to enjoy that which was assigned to them by the Treaty of Utrecht: And whereas, by a Declaration delivered by his Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary to his Most Christian Majesty, bearing Date also on the said third Day of September one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, his Majesty engaged not only to insure the Execution of the last mentioned Treaty with his known good Faith and Punctuality, but to give all possible Efficacy to such Principles as may prevent Dispute; and, that the Fishermen of the two Nations may not give cause for daily Quarrels, was pleased to engage that he would take the most positive Measures for preventing his Subjects from interrupting in any Manner, by their Competition, the Fishing of the French, during the temporary Exercise thereof which is granted to them upon the Coasts of the Island of Newfoundland, and that he would,

'would, for that Purpose, cause the permanent Settlements which should be formed there to be removed; and 'that he would give Orders that the French Fishermen should not be incommoded in the cutting of Wood 'necessary for the Repair of their Scaffolds, Huts, and Fishing Boats; and that the thirteenth Article of 'the Treaty of Utrecht, and the Method of carrying on the Fishery which had at all Times been acknow-'ledged, should be the Plan upon which the Fishery should be carried on there, and that it should not be 'deviated from by either Party, the French Fishermen building only their Scaffolds, confining themselves 'to the Repair of their Fishing Vessels, and not wintering there; the Subjects of his Britannick Majesty, 'on their Part, not molesting in any Manner the French Fishermen during their Fishing, nor injuring their 'Scaffolds during their Absence: And whereas it is expedient, in conformity to the Definitive Treaty of 'Peace and the Declaration aforesaid, that his Majesty's Subjects should be prevented from interrupting in 'any Manner, by their Competition, the aforesaid Fishery of the Subjects of his Most Christian Majesty, 'during the temporary Exercise thereof which is granted to them on the Coast of Newfoundland; and that 'all permanent Establishments on that Part of the Coast allotted to the French Fishermen should be re-'moved; and that such Fishermen should be in no Manner molested, contrary to the Tenor of the said 'Treaty, and the good Faith thereof: In order, therefore, that his Majesty may be the better enabled 'to carry the said several Treaties and Declarations into faithful and punctual Execution, and to make such 'Regulations as may be expedient, respecting the Fishery in the Manner herein after mentioned,' be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Advice of Council, from Time to Time, to give such Orders and Instructions to the Governor of Newfoundland, or to any Officer or Officers on that Station, as he or they shall deem proper and necessary to fulfil the Purposes of the Definitive Treaty and Declaration aforesaid; and, if it shall be necessary to that End, to give Orders and Instructions to the Governor, or other Officer or Officers aforesaid, to remove, or cause to be removed, any Stages, Flakes, Train Vatts, or other Works whatever, for the Purpose of carrying on Fishery, erected by his Majesty's Subjects on that Part of the Coast of Newfoundland which lies between Cape Saint John, passing to the North, and descending by the Western Coast of the said Island to the Place called Cape Rage, and also all Ships, Vessels, and Boats, belonging to his Majesty's Subjects, which shall be found within the Limits aforesaid, and also, in case of Refusal to depart from within the Limits aforesaid, to compel any of his Majesty's Subjects to depart from thence; any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

His Majesty, by Advice of Council, may give such Orders to the Governor of Newfoundland, &c. as shall be deemed proper to fulfil the Purposes of the Treaty of Versailles, and the Declaration of the French King, above recited.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall refuse, upon Requisition made by the Governor, or any Officer or Officers acting under him, in pursuance of his Majesty's Orders or Instructions as aforesaid, to depart from within the Limits aforesaid, or otherwise to conform to such Requisition and Directions as such Governor, or other Officer as aforesaid, shall make or give, for the Purposes aforesaid, every such Person or Persons so refusing, or otherwise offending against the same, shall forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds, to be recovered in the Court of Session, or Court of Vice Admiralty in the said Island of Newfoundland, or by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; one Moiety of such Penalty to belong to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons as shall sue or prosecute for the same: Provided always, That every such Suit or Prosecution, if the same be commenced in Newfoundland, shall be commenced within three Months, and if commenced in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, within twelve Months from the Time of the Commission of such Offence.

'the Officer of Excise who surveyed such Trader, as soon as the Fire was damped or drawn from under 'the Copper, Pan, or other Utensil, whenever any Soap, or any Thing of a soapy Quality, should be 'left therein; which said Locks and Keys to the same, and all other necessary Fastenings for securing the 'Coppers, Pans, or other Utensils, and also the Pipes, should be provided by the respective Surveyors or 'Supervisors of Excise of the Division or District in which such respective Makers of hard Soap should re- 'side, at the Expence of such respective Makers; and whenever any such Maker of hard Soap should be 'desirous of lighting a Fire under such Copper, Pan, or other Utensil, so locked and sealed down, and 'should have given to the Officer of Excise of the Division or District twelve Hours Notice, if such Maker 'of hard Soap should reside within the Limits and Jurisdiction of the Head Office of Excise in London, or 'if such Maker of hard Soap should reside in any other Part of Great Britain, twenty-four Hours Notice 'of such his, her, or their Intention, the Officer of Excise should attend to unlock and open the Copper, 'Pan, or other Utensil, and the Pipe or Pipes so secured, under the Penalties in the said Act in that Behalf 'provided: And whereas Doubts have arisen, whether the Provisions of the said recited Clause, and the 'Penalties therein contained, do extend to Makers of Ball Soap;' be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Provisions of the said recited Clause, and the Penalties therein contained, do extend, and the same shall accordingly extend, to Makers of Ball Soap.

and the Provisions and Penalties to extend to the Makers of Ball Soap.

'XIV. And whereas by an Act made in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty '(intituled, An Act for better securing the Duties on Starch and Soap), it is among other Things enacted, 'That no Maker or Makers of hard Soap should sell any hard Soap but in the Shape or Form of Cakes or 'Bars, or what is commonly called or known by the Name of Ball Soap; and that all Scraps and Parings 'of hard Soap should be returned into the Copper or Boiler in the Presence of the Officer, immediately 'after the Soap that had been put into the Frames from any one Boiling should have been cut up for Sale: 'And whereas it has been found by Experience, that great Quantities of such Scraps and Parings, instead 'of being returned into the Copper or Boiler, as is directed by that Act, in the Presence of the Officer, 'are sent out into Consumption, to the great Detriment of the Revenue, and the Injury of the fair Trader, 'and it is difficult to prove the same to be Scraps and Parings, by reason that the Officers are not autho- 'rised by Law to seize the same, so as the same may be produced on the Trial, and be proved to be Scraps 'and Parings; and it is equally detrimental to the Revenue by whatever Means such Scraps and Parings 'get out into Consumption:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Scraps or Parings of hard Soap shall be sold or sent out by any Maker or Makers of hard Soap, or shall be found removing or carrying, or removed or carried from one Part of this Kingdom to another, by Land or by Water, the same shall be forfeited, together with the Casks and Packages containing the same, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and the Maker or Makers of hard Soap who shall send out or sell the same, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

'one Pint in the Whole, out of each of the said Casks or other Package containing such Rum or Spirits, 'paying for such Sample or Samples (if demanded) according to the Market Price Rum or Spirits of the 'like Quality should be sold for at the Time such Sample or Samples should be taken: And whereas 'Doubts have arisen whether such Gaugers or other Officers of Excise are by the said recited Clause autho-'rised to take by way of Sample or Samples more than one Pint of such Rum or Spirits out of any such 'Cask or Package containing such Rum or Spirits;' now, to obviate such Doubts in future, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Person or Persons shall have given any such Notice as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers of Excise, before the Delivery of such Rum or Spirits from any such Warehouse or Warehouses, and at any Time afterwards, to take as many Samples as he or they shall think fit (neither of such Samples exceeding Half a Pint) out of each of such Casks or Packages containing such Rum or Spirits, paying for such Samples (if demanded) at and after the Rate of three Shillings per Gallon; and if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any such Officer or Officers of Excise in taking any such Sample or Samples, upon his or their offering to pay for the same as aforesaid (if demanded), the Person or Persons offending therein shall, for each and every such Offence, severally forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Officers of Excise may take as many Samples as they think fit of Rum intended to be exported, at the Rate of 3 s. per Gallon;

'XVII. And whereas it is expedient to allow the Officers of Excise to take Samples of Rum or Spirits, 'of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the British Sugar Plantations, which shall be delivered out of 'any Warehouse or Warehouses in which the same shall have been lodged in pursuance of the said last-men-'tioned Act, as Stores to be spent and consumed on board any Ship, in any Voyage to Parts beyond the 'Seas, according to an Act made in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty;' be it there-fore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers of Excise, before the Delivery of such Rum or Spirits so delivered as Stores, to be spent and consumed as aforesaid, from any such Warehouse or Warehouses, and at any Time afterwards, to take as many Samples as he or they shall think fit (neither of such Samples exceeding Half a Pint) out of each of the Casks or Packages containing such Rum or Spirits, paying for such Samples (if demanded) at and after the Rate of three Shillings per Gallon; and if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any such Officer or Officers of Excise in taking any such Sample or Samples, upon his or their offering to pay for the same as aforesaid (if demanded), the Person or Persons offending therein shall, for each and every such Offence, severally forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

And whereas by an Act made in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty '(intituled, An Act for laying additional Duties upon Licences, to be taken out by Persons dealing by Retail in 'Spirituous Liquors); reciting, that it was expedient that additional Duties should be paid by all Persons who 'should take out Licences to deal by Retail in Spirituous Liquors, it is enacted, That from and after the 'fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, there should be raised, levied, collected, 'and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the several and respective Sums 'in the said Act in that Behalf mentioned, for and upon all Licences to be taken out annually, in Manner 'in the said Act mentioned, by all Persons who should retail any distilled Spirituous Liquors or Strong 'Waters within Great Britain: And whereas divers Persons, duly licensed since the passing of the said

'Act to retail distilled Spirituous Liquors, have now no Licence granted to them by the Justices of the Peace 'in due Form of Law to sell Ale, Beer, or other exciseable Liquors, by reason of such Justices of the 'Peace having refused to grant such Licences to such Persons, and similar Cases may occur in future, and 'such Persons being unable to sell Ale, Beer, or other exciseable Liquors for want of such Licence, have 'become greatly reduced in their Circumstances, and been deprived of the Means by which they might 'have been enabled to make good the Payments by the said Act directed to be made, for or in respect of 'the Licences by the said Act directed to be taken out, and it is therefore expedient to refund to such Per-'sons the Money received from them respectively on account of such Payments, since such their respective 'Licences granted to them respectively by the Justices of the Peace have expired; and also to exonerate 'such Persons, as well as all other Persons who may hereafter be in similar Circumstances, from all further 'Payments by the said Act directed to be made, for or in respect of the Licences by the said Act directed 'to be taken out:' be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland respectively, or the major Part of them respectively, within the Limits of the chief Offices of Excise in London and Edinburgh respectively, and for the several Collectors of Excise in other Parts of Great Britain within their respective Collections; and such Commissioners and Collectors of Excise respectively are hereby required to pay, out of the Monies arising from the Duties of Excise upon Licences to retail distilled Spirituous Liquors, to all and every Person and Persons who were duly licensed since the passing of the said Act to retail distilled Spirituous Liquors, and who, on the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, shall have no such Licence to sell Ale, Beer, or other exciseable Liquors, by reason of such Justices of the Peace having refused to renew such Licences to such Persons, the Money received from them respectively for or on account of any of the Payments by the said Act directed to be made for or in respect of any Licence or Licences by the said Act directed to be taken out, since his, her, or their respective Licences, granted to them respectively by the Justices of the Peace to sell Ale, Beer, or other exciseable Liquors, have expired; and that no such Person or Persons as aforesaid, nor his, her, or their Executor or Administrator, shall be liable to the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money whatsoever by the said Act directed to be paid, for or in respect of any Licence or Licences by the said Act directed to be taken out; and no Person or Persons who now is or are, or hereafter shall be, duly licensed to retail distilled Spirituous Liquors, and who shall afterwards have no Licence to sell Ale, Beer, or other exciseable Liquors, by reason of the Justices of the Peace having refused to renew such Licence to him, her, or them, nor his, her, or their Executor or Administrator, shall be liable to the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money whatsoever by the said Act directed to be paid for or in respect of any Payment by the said Act directed to be made, for any Time elapsed since the Expiration of any such Licence or Licences which any Justices of the Peace shall so refuse to renew; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

'XXXI. And whereas by an Act made in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty '(intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Duties on Glass imported into Great Britain, and for altering 'the Mode of charging the Duties on Glass made in Great Britain), it was enacted, That in lieu of the Duty of 'Excise then chargeable and payable for or in respect of any Materials, or Metal, or other Preparations made 'use of in Great Britain in the making of Cast Plate Glass, there should be paid to his Majesty, his Heirs 'and Successors, at and after the Rate of one Pound one Shilling and five Pence Halfpenny per hundred 'Weight, for all Cast Plate Glass which should be made in Great Britain, and which should be squared 'into Plates of a Superficies not less than one thousand four hundred and eighty-five Inches, and of a Thick-'ness according to their Superficies, as is therein mentioned and described: And whereas by the said Act 'it was enacted, That all and every Maker and Makers of Cast Plate Glass should break into small Pieces, 'to the Satisfaction of the Officer of Excise under whose Survey such Maker or Makers should be, imme-'diately upon being requested so to do by such Officer, all Cast Plate and all Cullet which should 'not be squared into Plates, according to the Directions of the said Act, so as to render such Glass and 'Cullet unfit for any Purpose but that of re-melting; and that if any Maker or Makers should neglect or 'refuse so to do, he, she, or they should, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds: And 'whereas it has been found, by Experience, that there is no Certainty that any Cast Plate of Glass will 'turn out to be in all its Parts of the Thickness prescribed by the said recited Act, although the Maker 'thereof may intend and be desirous to make the same of the Thickness so prescribed, and by reason thereof, 'the same is liable to be broken into small Pieces, according to the Directions of the said recited Act, to the 'great Loss and Injury of the Maker thereof;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the fifteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, no Cast Plate Glass, the superficial Content whereof shall be one thousand four hundred and eighty-five square Inches and upwards, and the Thickness whereof shall, upon an Average, be at the least five twentieth Parts of an Inch, shall be liable to be broken into small Pieces, according to the Directions of the said recited Act; any Thing therein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Wharfingers to give an Account to the proper Officer of the Quantity of Wool received, on Penalty of 10*l.*

'XXXIV. And, the better to prevent any fraudulent Exportation of Wool, Woolfels, Mortlings, 'Shortlings, combed Wool, Woolflocks, or Woollen Bay Yarn, Worsted Yarn, Cruels, or Wool slightly 'manufactured, and which are hereby prohibited from being exported, under the Pretence of carrying the 'same Coastwise in the Kingdom of Great Britain;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Wool, or any other the last before enumerated Articles, and which are hereby prohibited from being exported, shall be put on board any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, to be carried Coastwise, or from one Port in Great Britain to another, unless Notice be first given to the Commissioners or Chief Managers of the Customs, or to the Customer, or Collector and Comptroller of the Customs at the Port from which the same is intended to be sent, of the Quantity, Quality, and Package, together with the Marks, Numbers, and Weight thereof, with the Name of the Ship, and Master or Commander, on board of which the said Goods are to be laden, together with the Name or Names of the Owner or Owners of the said Goods, and the Place of his or their Abode or Habitation, and the Place and Port at which the same are intended to be landed, and the Names of the Person or Persons to whom the same are consigned; and also unless a Bond be first entered into to the Use of the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by two good and sufficient Persons, in treble the Value of the said Goods so intended to be carried Coastwise, that the same shall (the Danger of the Seas excepted) be landed accordingly, which said Bond shall be executed by the Owner or Owners of the said Goods, or some Person or Persons by him, her, or them appointed to execute the same, and which Execution shall be deemed to be the Act of such Owner or Owners, or Shipper or Shippers thereof; which said Shipper or Shippers, if acting as Agent, or having sold such Goods to any Person or Persons, shall and may sue for and recover, of and from the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Goods so shipped, all such Sum and Sums of Money as such Shipper or Shippers shall or may pay, expend, or be put unto, without their wilful Default or Negligence, for or by reason of his, her, or their entering into such Bond or Bonds; and in case any such Bond or Bonds shall be so entered into for any Wool, or any other the last herein-before enumerated Articles, being the Property of different Persons, then such Owner or Owners, or Person or Persons for whose Account such Bond was so entered into, shall be accountable for his, her, or their Share of the Money so expended, in Proportion to the Amount of such Goods so shipped; and also unless a Licence be first taken out under the Hands of the Commissioners or Chief Managers of the Customs for the Time being, or any three of them, or from the Customer, or Collector and Comptroller of the Customs where any such Bond is given, for the lading, carrying, and landing thereof as aforesaid, which Licence they are hereby required to grant without any Fee

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the better to encourage Persons to discover the Exporters of Sheep, Wool, or other the Articles before enumerated, and which are hereby prohibited from being exported, the first three Persons who shall have been aiding, abetting, or assisting in carrying out or exporting of Sheep, Wool, or any of the said Articles, who shall give Information thereof to any Justice of the Peace within this Kingdom, whereby the Punishment and Penalties appointed by this Act may be inflicted and recovered, the Party or Parties so discovering (not being Owner or Part Owner of the said Sheep, Wool, or other the Articles as aforesaid) shall not suffer any of the said Penalties or Punishments herein-before mentioned: Provided always, That if any Owner of any Ship or Vessel, or any Master, Commander, or Mariner, or Person aiding or assisting in loading any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, knowing of such Exportation of Sheep, Wool, or of any of the Articles before enumerated, and which are hereby prohibited from being exported, shall, within three Months next after the Knowledge thereof, or after his Return into the Kingdom of Great Britain, give the first Information thereof before any of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer for the Time being, or before the Head Officer of any Port where he shall first arrive, or before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, upon his or their Oath, of the Number and Quantity of the said Articles so carried, conveyed, and transported, and by whom, where, and in what Ship or Vessel, and shall enter into Recognizance to his said Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with two sufficient Sureties before any Justice of the Peace, in the Sum of forty Pounds each, personally to appear and give Evidence of the same; then such Owner and Owners, Master, Commander, Mariner and Mariners, or other Person or Persons so aiding or assisting therein, shall not be liable to any of the Penalties or Forfeitures in this Act contained or enacted for the Offence aforesaid, but shall be, and is and are hereby enabled to recover and receive such Benefit and Advantage as is appointed to be received and allowed by this Act on Conviction of such Offenders.

23 Hen. 8. c. 17. and

'LXXIX. And whereas an Act of Parliament was passed in the twenty-third Year of the Reign of his 'Majesty King Henry the Eighth, For the winding of Wool, whereby it was enacted, That from thence-'forth no Manner of Person or Persons do wind, or cause to be wound, any Fleece of Wool being not 'sufficiently rivered or washed, nor wind, nor cause to be wound, within any Fleece, Clay, Lead, Stones,

'Sand,

'Sand, Tails, deceitful Locks, Cots, Cals, Comber, Lamb's Wool, or any other Thing, whereby the 'Fleece might be made more weighty, to the Deceit and Loss of the Buyer, upon Pain the Seller of any 'such deceitful Wools to forfeit for every such Fleece six Pence, the one Moiety to the King, the other to 'the Finder and Prover of the same Deceit, by Action of Debt, by original Writ, Bill, Plaint, Inform-'ation, or otherwise, in any of the King's Courts, in which Action, no Wager of Law, Essoin, or Pro-'tection, should be allowed for the Defendant; and it was provided in and by the said Act, that the same 'Act concerning rivering and washing of any Wool should not in anywise extend to any Shire or Shires, 'the Inhabitants whereof had not customably used before that Time to river or wash their Sheep afore 'they were shorn, nor should in anywise be hurtful or prejudicial to any Person or Persons that had used 'customably to sell their Wools by Tale or Number of the Fleece or Fleeces, and not by Weight, any 'Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding; which said Statute was made perpetual in and by 'another Act of Parliament, passed in the thirteenth Year of her Majesty Queen Elizabeth (intituled, An 'Act for reviving and Continuance of certain Statutes): And whereas the said Laws have not now the good 'Effects thereby proposed and intended, by reason of the said Penalty being so small, and one Moiety thereof 'being directed to be paid to the King, and the great Expence attending the Recovery of the same;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Person and Persons offending against the said last-mentioned Acts shall, in lieu of every Sixpence which, by the said Acts, or either of them, might be recovered, forfeit and pay the Sum of two Shillings, the Whole whereof shall be paid to the Finder or Prover of the above-mentioned Deceits; and the Offences against the said Acts, or either of them, from henceforth shall and may be proceeded upon, heard, and determined by and before any one Justice of the Peace residing at or near the Place where such Offence or Offences shall be committed, in a summary Way; and such said Justice of the Peace shall be and he is hereby impowered to cause the respective Person or Persons against whom any such Information shall be laid, to be summoned at a certain Time and Place to be fixed by such Justice, and he is hereby fully authorised, empowered, and required, upon the Appearance or Default of such Person or Persons, to examine into, and give Judgment in the Premises; any Thing in the said recited Acts, or either of them, contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

13 Eliz. c. 25. recited, and the Penalty thereby imposed on deceitful Winding of Wool increased to 2 s. per Fleece, the Whole to be to the Prover thereof.

Offences against the recited Acts may be determined by a Justice in a summary Way.

LXXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if it shall appear, to the Satisfaction of such Justice, that the Matter complained of was not done, committed, or suffered, with Intent to deceive the Buyer of any such aforesaid Wool, or that any Clay, Sand, or Earth, which shall be found in such Fleece, was not intentionally put there to make the Fleece more weighty, but became mixed or connected with the same by reason of the necessary pasturing, folding, or keeping of the Sheep, whereupon such Fleece shall have been grown subsequent to the rivering or washing of such Sheep, that every such Justice shall and may and he is hereby empowered to discharge every such Complaint, and to acquit the Person and Persons thereby accused, of and from the Payment of any Penalty or Forfeiture, on Account of the Matter or Offence therein set forth and alledged; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Complaints for deceitful Winding of Wool to be discharged, if there appears no Intention to defraud.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That in case the Penalty or Penalties hereby inflicted or imposed, for or in respect of the false winding of Wool, or the selling or disposing thereof, shall not be paid within six Days next after such Conviction, the same Penalty or Penalties shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Offender or Offenders, by Warrant or Warrants under the Hands and Seals of the Justice or Justices before whom he or they shall have been convicted.

The aforesaid Penalty, if not paid in six Days, to be levied by Distress.

'LXXXII. And whereas it may frequently happen that the Seller of such deceitful Wools or Wool 'falsely wound or folded, may not be the Person who actually wound or folded the same, or that the 'same were deceitfully or falsely wound or folded without the Privity, Knowledge, or Consent of such 'Seller;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful, in every such Case, to and for the Seller of Wool, touching which any Complaint or Information shall have been made, and which shall be then pending, immediately after he shall have received such Summons as aforesaid, to apply to the Justice of the Peace who shall have granted such Summons, and require him, upon Information having been given for that Purpose, to summon the Person who actually wound or folded the Wool then complained of as being falsely or deceitfully wound or folded, to appear at the Time and Place mentioned in such original Summons, or at such other Time and Place as such Justice shall think proper (of which Time and Place sufficient Notice shall be given by the Seller of such Wool to the Person or Persons complaining), when the said Justice shall, and he is hereby empowered, whether the Person charged as being the actual Winder of the Wool then complained of shall appear or not (Proof being made that he had been duly summoned), to hear and determine the Matter of such Complaint; and if it shall then appear, to the Satisfaction of the said Justice, that the Wool then complained of had been actually wound or folded falsely and deceitfully by the Person then charged by the Seller thereof with having wound and folded the same, and that without the Privity, Knowledge, or Consent of such Seller, that then, and in every such Case, the Person who had actually wound or folded such Wool (and not the Seller thereof) shall be subject and liable to the Penalties herein-before imposed upon the Seller and Sellers of Wool deceitfully or falsely wound or folded, and such Remedies for the Recovery of the same, as are herein-before mentioned; but if it shall, upon such Hearing, appear otherwise to such Justice, or if it shall appear and be determined otherwise upon the Hearing of the Appeal, and which is herein-after given, then, and in every such Case, the Seller of the Wool so complained of shall remain and be subject to such Penalties, and Remedies for the Recovery thereof, as aforesaid, any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and in case of Non-payment of such Penalties by, or that the same cannot be recovered of and from, the Person who shall have been convicted of having actually falsely and deceitfully wound or folded such Wool, every such Person shall be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the County, Riding, Division, or Place wherein the Offence was committed, there to remain for any Time not exceeding three Calendar Months, nor less than twenty-one Days, unless the Penalty and Costs (if any) shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

Persons complained of for selling Wool deceitfully wound, may, if it was done without their Privity, require the Appearance of the Party that so wound it, before a Justice, who is to determine the Matter, &c.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter Sessions, &c.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think himself or themselves aggrieved by the Judgment or Determination of any such Justice of the Peace, upon any Complaint or Information which shall have been brought or made before him, respecting the winding or folding of Wool, it shall and may be lawful to and for any such Person or Persons to appeal to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County, Division, or Place in or for which such Justice shall have acted, such Person or Persons giving, and being hereby required to give, within five Days then next after such Conviction, Notice in Writing to the Respondent or Respondents in such Appeal, and shall and do, at the Time of making such Appeal, with two sufficient Sureties, enter into Recognizance before the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, to appear and prosecute such Appeal at the said General or Quarter Sessions, and abide by the Order or Determination of the said Court, and to pay the Costs and Charges thereby awarded against such Person or Persons (if any); and every such Appeal shall, by the said Court of General or Quarter Sessions, be examined, and the Circumstances of the Case fully enquired into, and the Matter heard and determined; and the said Justices in the said General or Quarter Sessions are hereby authorised to award such Costs as shall appear to them just and reasonable to be paid by either Party.

No Conviction to be set aside for want of Form.

LXXXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Conviction made, or Judgment given, upon any Offence or Offences in this Act mentioned or created, shall be set aside in or by any Court whatsoever for want of Form, or through the mistating of any Fact, Circumstance, or other Matter whatsoever, provided the material Facts alledged in such Conviction or Judgment, and upon which the same shall be grounded, be proved to the Satisfaction of the said Court; any Law, Statute, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

27 Ed. 3. Stat. 2. c. 23.

'LXXXV. And whereas, by an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of 'his late Majesty King Edward the Third (intituled The Officers of the Staple, and Merchants repairing to 'it, shall be sworn to maintain the Staple, and the Laws and Customs of it, it was ordained, that a certain 'Number of Winders of Wool, and other Officers therein mentioned, be sufficiently ordained for the 'Place where the Staple is, and they and the Correctors, and all Manner of Officers of the Staple, besides 'the Constables, shall be sworn before the Mayor of the Staple, that they lawfully shall execute their Office, 'without Fraud or Deceit: And whereas all Winders now to be sworn do repair to the Mayor of the 'Staple at Westminster for the Purpose of being so sworn, whereby the Persons so desirous of being sworn 'are subjected to great Expence and Inconvenience;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace, who shall hereafter be assembled at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or any Adjournment thereof, and they are hereby empowered and required to administer to every such Person as shall be desirous of becoming a sworn Winder of Wool, and shall produce a Certificate under the Hands of any two Growers of Wool, testifying to the Satisfaction of such Justices, that such Person is properly qualified to become a sworn Winder of Wool, an Oath to the following Purport and Effect; that is to say,

Justices at the Quarter Sessions may administer to Persons properly qualified to be sworn Winders of Wool, the following Oath, which is to be entered in the Records of the Sessions;

"I A. B. do swear, That I will truly and justly, without Deceit, wind and fold all and singular the Wool "which I shall take upon me to wind and fold, without leaving or putting any Clay, Lead, Stones, Sand, "Tails, deceitful Locks, Lambs Wool, or any other Thing, whereby the Fleece may be made more "weighty, to the Deceit and Loss of the Buyer; and that I will not use any other Deceit, Craft, Guile, "or Fraud, in the winding or folding of any such aforesaid Wool.

"So help me GOD."

An Entry of the administering and taking of which Oath shall be made in the Records of the said Sessions, and a Certificate thereof shall be delivered by the Clerk of the Peace, or other proper Officer, to the Person who shall have taken the same.

but Persons not so sworn may be employed.

LXXXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to hinder or prevent any one from employing any Person in winding or folding of Wool, although such Person shall not have been sworn in Manner before mentioned.

'LXXXVII. And whereas many Persons are now confined in Prison for Penalties and Fines set upon 'them in consequence of their having been convicted of Offences against the Laws now in being to pre'vent the illicit Exportation of live Sheep, Wool, and other the aforesaid enumerated Articles, which they 'are unable to pay; and many, to avoid such Penalties and Forfeitures, and the Punishments directed to be 'inflicted upon Persons convicted of such Offences, have withdrawn themselves into foreign Parts, and Pro'cess of Outlawry may have issued against some of them: And whereas it is expedient to extend a Pardon 'and Indemnity to Persons under the aforesaid Circumstances;' be it therefore enacted, That no Prosecution, Action, Suit, or Information shall be commenced, for or upon account or by reason of any Offence committed by any Person or Persons against any of the Provisions of any Act or Acts now in force against the Exportation of live Sheep, Wool, or any other the aforesaid Articles, before the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, but that the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Punishments shall be wholly pardoned and released.

No Prosecution to be commenced for Offences prior to May 1, 1788, against the Laws respecting the Exportation of live Sheep, &c.

His Majesty's Share of Fines now due, or which may become due in Prosecutions now

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That, as to all Penalties or Fines now due, on any former Conviction upon any of the Acts hereby repealed, or which may become due in consequence of Prosecutions now carrying on, the same shall be pardoned and discharged, so far as regards the Share or Interest of of such Penalty or Fine given to his Majesty; and that all Persons against whom any Process of Outlawry hath been sued out, for the Matters aforesaid, may be at Liberty to apply, by Motion, to the Court out of which such Process issued, to set aside or reverse the same.

pending, to be remitted, and Reversal of Outlawries may be applied for.

LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, who shall claim the Benefit of this Act, shall, after such Claim, bring or commence, or cause to be brought or commenced, any Action, Plaint, Information, or other Prosecution whatsoever, against any Officer of his Majesty's Navy, or in the Service of the Customs, Excise, or Salt, or other Person who shall have aided or assisted any such Officer, for or concerning any Act, Matter, or Thing, done or committed by them, or any of them, on occasion of, or for or by reason or means of any of the Offences, Frauds, Misdemeanors, or other Matters or Things intended to be released and discharged by this Act, such Claim is and shall be deemed to be an absolute Discharge and Release to every such Officer or other Person, of and from all and every such Actions, Suits, and Prosecutions; and such Officer and other Person may plead the General Issue and give the special Matter in Evidence; and the said Officer or other Person shall recover his Costs of Suit against the Person or Persons so bringing or commencing such Action or Prosecution.

In Actions brought by Persons claiming the Benefit of this Act against Officers, &c. for any Thing done in regard to Matters hereby discharged, they may plead the General Issue.

XC. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to discharge or release any Seizures of Wool, or any other the said herein-before enumerated Articles, or of any Ships, Vessels, Boats, Horses, Waggons, Carts, Carriages, or other Thing whatsoever, or any Prosecution now depending for the Forfeiture of such Wool, or any other the said herein-before enumerated Articles, Ships, Vessels, Boats, Horses, Waggons, Carts, Carriages, or other Thing, under any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force against the Exportation of live Sheep, Wool, or any other the said herein-before enumerated Articles, nor to acquit, release, or discharge any Judgment or Judgments, where the Monies or other Things recovered have been actually levied, or the Body or Bodies of the Offender or Offenders now in Custody, or which have been taken in Execution before the making of this Act, nor to acquit, release, or discharge any Information which has been already entered or any Action or Suit which has been already commenced or brought against any Person or Persons, for the Recovery of any Penalty, Fine, or Forfeiture incurred by any Offence committed by him or them against any such Act or Acts of Parliament, Verdict or Verdicts obtained, or Judgment or Judgments recovered thereon, in respect to such Part thereof as belongs to, or has been usually allowed and paid to the Officer of his Majesty's Navy, or in the Service of the Customs, Excise, or Salt (at whose Instance the Prosecution is or was carried on), according to the Mode in which such Suit or Suits hath or have been commenced and carried on; but such Information, Suit, Verdict or Verdicts, or Judgment or Judgments, shall and may be proceeded upon as originally commenced, entered, and proceeded upon, without any Alteration in the Proceedings upon such Information, Suit, Verdict or Verdicts, Judgment or Judgments, for the Recovery in due Course of Law of such Part of the Penalty or Forfeiture incurred, as belongs to, or has been usually allowed and paid to such Officer of his Majesty's Navy, or in the Service of the Customs, Excise, or Salt, at whose Instance the Prosecution is or was carried on, according to the Mode in which such Suit or Suits hath or have been carried on.

Act not to extend to the Discharge of any Seizure of Wool, &c. or any Prosecution now depending, &c. in respect to such Parts of Fines as belong to the Informer;

but such Suits may be proceeded on.

XCI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Action, Suit, or Information shall be commenced, brought, and prosecuted on account of the Seizure of any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, Waggon, Cart, Carriage, Horse, or other Beast of Burden, or of any Sheep, Wool, Woolfels, Woolflocks, Mortlings, Shortlings, Worsted, Bay or Woollen Yarn, Cruels, or Wool slightly manufactured, or Mattrasses or Beds stuffed with combed Wool, or Wool fit for combing or carding, Fullers Earth, Fulling Clay, or Tobacco-pipe Clay, as illegally carried or exported, or intended or attempted to be exported, or for any Matter, Cause, or Thing done, committed, or executed by virtue of this Act, or any Clause or Article herein contained, such Action shall be commenced within six Months after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the proper County where the Fact was done or committed; and the Person or Persons so sued may file Common Bail, or enter a Common Appearance, and plead the General Issue, Not guilty, and may give this Act, and the special Matter, in Evidence at the Trial, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if upon the Trial it shall appear to be so done, the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and in such Case, or if the said Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or Prosecutor, shall become Nonsuit, or suffer Discontinuance, or if upon Demurrer Judgment be given against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants in any such Case shall recover Treble Costs, which he or they shall sustain by his or their Defence to such Action or Suit; and that in case any Information shall be commenced and brought to Trial on account of any Seizure which shall be made under or by virtue of this Act, wherein a Verdict shall be found for the Claimer thereof, and it shall appear to the Judge or Court before whom the same shall be tried that there was a probable Cause of Seizure, the Judge or Court before whom the said Information shall be tried shall certify on the Record that there was a probable Cause for the Prosecutor's making such Seizure, in such Case the Defendant shall not be entitled to any Costs of Suit whatever, nor shall the Person or Persons who made any such Seizure be liable to any Action, Indictment, or other Suit or Prosecution, on account thereof; and that in case any Action, Indictment, or other Prosecution, shall be commenced and brought to Trial against any Person or Persons whatsoever, which shall be made under or by virtue of this Act, wherein a Verdict shall be given against the Defendant or Defendants, if the Court or Judge before whom such Action or Prosecution shall be tried shall certify on the said Record that there was a probable Cause for such Seizure, then the Plaintiff, besides the Ship or Goods which shall happen to be seized, or the Value thereof, shall not be entitled to above two Pence Damages, nor to any Costs of Suit, nor shall the Defendant in such Prosecution be fined above one Shilling.

From Aug. 1, 1788, Ships which carried Lumber, &c. from Quebec to the West Indies the last Voyage, to be permitted to import, Duty-free, into that Province, a Quantity of Rum equal to the Value of the Lumber, &c. so carried.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases, where any Rum, or other Spirits, being the Produce or Manufacture of any of the said Colonies in the West Indies, shall be legally imported or brought into the said Province from any of the said Colonies, in any Ship or Vessel which, in her next clearing out from the said Province after such Importation, shall load with a Cargo of Lumber or Provisions, Horses or Neat Cattle, in the said Province, and shall carry to, and land the same in some of the said Colonies, it shall and may be lawful to admit to an Entry and land any Quantity of such Rum or Spirits, not exceeding in Value the Cargo of Lumber or Provisions, Horses or Neat Cattle, so loaded, without Payment of the said Duty of six Pence per Gallon: Provided always, that the Owner or Owners of such last mentioned Ship or Vessel, which shall so as aforesaid have legally imported such Rum or other Spirits, or in case of such Owner or Owners not residing in the said Province, the Master or Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, together with one or more sufficient Sureties residing within the said Province, shall, before such Rum or other Spirits shall be so admitted to an Entry without Payment of the said Duty, give Bond to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to be taken by the two principal Officers of the Customs there, in the penal Sum of five hundred Pounds, with Condition that the said Ship or Vessel shall, in her next clearing out from the said Province after such Importation, be laden with a Cargo of Lumber or Provisions, Horses or Neat Cattle, equal in Value to the Rum or Spirits so admitted to an Entry, without Payment of the said Duty as aforesaid; and that the said Lumber or Provisions, Horses or Neat Cattle, shall be carried to, and landed in some of the said Colonies in the West Indies.

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS Inquiries have been made, under the Authority of several Acts of Parliament, made and passed in the twenty-third, twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, and twenty-seventh Years of your 'Majesty's Reign, into the Losses of all such Persons as have suffered in their Rights and Properties, during 'the late unhappy Dissensions in America, in consequence of their Loyalty to your Majesty, and Attach- 'ment to the British Government; and also under the Authority of an Act made in the twenty-sixth Year 'of your Majesty's Reign, into the Losses of all such Persons as have suffered in their Properties, in con- 'sequence of the Cession of the Province of East Florida to the King of Spain: And whereas it is consistent 'with your Majesty's Munificence, and the Honour and Character of the British Nation, that liberal Re- 'lief should be given in Consideration of the Losses of all such Persons as have suffered in their Rights and 'Properties, during the late unhappy Dissensions in America, in consequence of their Loyalty to your 'Majesty, and Attachment to the British Government; and that Compensation should be made to such 'Persons as have suffered in their Properties, in consequence of the Cession of the Province of East Florida 'to the King of Spain:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Commissioners appointed to enquire into the Losses and Services of such Persons who have suffered in their Rights, Properties and Professions, during the late unhappy Dissensions in America, shall, on or before the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, make up and transmit to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, now or for the Time being, a Book or Books signed by themselves, or any two or more of them, containing the Names and Additions of all the several Persons who have already, or who before the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, shall have produced satisfactory Evidence of their Losses, with the Amount of the Losses sustained by each Person respectively, as the same have been or shall be ascertained and settled by the said Commissioners respectively; abating therefrom, in the Case of all Persons coming within any of the Classes respectively described, in the Statement of the Claims examined by the said Commissioners, under the Titles of Loyalists who have rendered Services to Great Britain; Loyalists who bore Arms in the Service of Great Britain; Loyalists Zealous and Uniform; Loyalists who took Oaths to the American States, but afterwards joined the British; Loyalists who bore Arms for the American States, but afterwards joined the British; and Loyalists sustaining Losses under the Prohibitory Act; ten Pounds per Centum of such Part thereof as shall exceed ten thousand Pounds, where the Amount of such Losses shall not be above thirty-five thousand Pounds; fifteen Pounds per Centum of such Part thereof as shall exceed ten thousand Pounds, where the Amount of such Losses shall be above thirty-five thousand Pounds, and not above fifty thousand Pounds; and twenty Pounds per Centum of such Part thereof as shall exceed ten thousand Pounds, where the Amount of such Losses shall be above fifty thousand Pounds; and also abating therefrom in the Case of all Persons coming within one eighth of a Gallon of Spirits, at the Strength of one in six under Hydrometer Proof, then the whole Quantity of Wash from which such twenty-four Gallons were taken shall be charged by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise with a Duty of one Shilling per Gallon, and which shall become payable immediately on such Charge being made.

Mr. Bishop not to distil at any other than his present Workhouse, &c.

And whereas, by an Act made in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, 'intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties payable upon Chocolate made in Great Britain, and for granting cer- 'tain Inland Duties upon Cocoa Nuts in lieu thereof; for the better and more effectual securing the Revenue of 'Excise, and of the Inland Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, and for preventing 'Frauds therein; for the more punctual and ready Payment of the Allowances to be made to Brewers out of the 'additional Duties imposed on Malt; and for rectifying a Mistake in an Act, made in this present Session of Parlia- 'ment, with respect to the exempting of Candles from the additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum upon the 'Duties of Excise imposed by the said Act, reciting, That by an Act passed in the second Year of his present 'Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for more effectually preventing the excessive Use of Spirituous Liquors for 'Home Consumption, by laying additional Duties upon Spirits made in Great Britain, or imported into the same; 'and for better regulating and encouraging the Exportation of British made Spirits; and for securing the Payment 'of the Duties upon Spirituous Liquors, it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That, to prevent Distillers, 'who made Spirits for Exportation, from fraudulently removing Wash, Low Wines, or Spirits, the Officers 'of Excise should, from Time to Time, make a Charge from the apparent Decrease of the Wash of any such 'Distiller or Distillers, except such Decrease did really and truly arise from Accident; and that the Officers 'of Excise were prevented from making true Charges upon Decreases in the Wash of such Distillers, for 'Want of some certain Rule of ascertaining the true Proportion of Spirits that ought to be produced from a 'certain Quantity of Wash; for the better enabling such Officers to make true Charges on the apparent De- 'creases of Wash discovered at the Still House or Still Houses of every Distiller or Distillers making Spirits 'for Exportation, it was enacted, That, from and after the twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred 'and eighty-one, every Distiller and Distillers who, at any Time between the first Day of October and the 'first Day of June in each Year, should make or distil Spirits for Exportation, should, for every six Gallons of 'Wash, within the Time aforesaid, found in his Custody, produce to the Sight of the Officer or Officers of 'Excise at least one Gallon of Spirits; and that every Distiller and Distillers who, at any Time between the

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, for the more effectual levying, collecting, and paying all the said Duties herein-before granted, the same shall be under the Government, Care, and Management of the Commissioners for the Time being appointed to manage the Duties charged on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and impowered to employ the necessary Officers under them for that Purpose, and to cause such new Stamps to be provided, to denote the said several additional Duties as shall be requisite in that Behalf, and to do all other Things necessary to be done for putting this Act in execution, with relation to the said several Rates and Duties herein-before granted, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner, as they or the major Part of them are authorised to put in execution any former Law concerning stamped Paper, or Cards, or Dice. Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Stamps,

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, to prevent the Multiplication of Stamps or Marks upon Newspapers, and upon Cards and Dice, on which several Duties are, by several Acts of Parliament, imposed, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, instead of distinct Stamps or Marks to denote the several Duties on the said Newspapers, and on Cards and Dice charged therewith, to cause, if they see occasion, one new Stamp to be provided to denote the former Duties, and also the Duties granted by this Act, on every such Newspaper, and upon every Pack of Playing Cards and Pair of Dice, charged with the said several Duties. who may provide one Stamp to denote the former and the additional Duties.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Paper, liable to the Duties hereby charged on Newspapers, shall, before the same shall be ingrossed, printed, or written upon, be brought to the Head Office for stamping or marking Vellum, Parchment, and Paper; and the said Commissioners, by themselves or by their Officers employed under them, shall forthwith, upon Demand made by any Person or Persons from Time to Time, stamp or mark, as this Act directs, any Quantities or Parcels of Paper as shall be brought to them for that Purpose, the Persons so bringing the same paying to the Receiver General of the Stamp Duties for the Time being, or his Deputy or Clerk, the several Duties payable for the same by virtue of this Act. Paper liable to the Duty, to be stamped before printed upon.

V. And

Allowance for prompt Payment of Duties on Cards and Dice to be made.

Stamps may be altered and renewed.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Stamps as the said Commissioners are hereby directed and authorised to provide and use to denote the several Duties on Cards and Dice, and on Newspapers, shall and may be altered and renewed from Time to Time, in such Manner as any other Stamps, under the Management of the said Commissioners, are, by any former Law relating to stamped Paper, directed to be altered and renewed; and that all Persons who shall have in their Custody or Possession any Paper marked with any Stamp or Mark, before the same shall have been so altered or renewed, or on which the same being already stamped or marked with a Stamp or Mark denoting any former Duty, a new Stamp is hereby directed to be impressed, shall have the like Remedy and Allowance as by any former Law relating to stamped Paper is, in like Cases, directed.

No Allowance to be made for cancelled Newspapers,

'VII. And whereas the making Allowances on the cancelling of Newspapers remaining unsold in 'the Hands of the respective Printers and Publishers as now used, has been found injurious to the Reve-'nue;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners, or their Officers appointed by them, to cancel, or cause to be cancelled, any Stamps upon any Copies or Impressions of such Newspapers as aforesaid, under Pretence of their remaining unsold in the Hands of the Printers, Publishers, or Proprietors thereof; nor to make any Allowance on account of the same, or of the present Payment of any of the said Duties, other than such as is herein-after mentioned; any former Law to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Hawkers letting out Papers to forfeit 5 l.

'XI. And in order the more effectually to compel the Payment of all Arrears of the said Duties on 'Advertisements, as they shall respectively from Time to Time arise and grow due,' be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners, from Time to Time, as often as the said Duties payable for Advertisements shall be in Arrear and unpaid for the Space of thirty Days after the printing or Publication thereof, shall cause to be delivered to the Printer or Publisher of such Newspaper, or left at the most usual House or Place for printing such Newspaper, a true Account in Writing of all the Sums of Money which shall from Time to Time become payable, and be claimed by the said Commissioners to be due in respect of such Advertisements, distinguishing therein the respective Times of the Publication thereof; and the said Proprietors, Printers, and Publishers of such Newspapers respectively are hereby required, upon the Delivery of any such Account, forthwith to pay to the said Commissioners, or to such Person or Persons as are employed by them, the Amount of the Duties contained in such Account: Provided nevertheless, if it shall appear on the Settlements of the said Accounts before the said Commissioners, that any Matter contained in such Newspaper has been charged with such Duty, which shall not be chargeable therewith, the said Commissioners are required to allow the same to the said Proprietors, Printers, and Publishers respectively, and to strike such Surcharge out of the said Accounts.

and if not settled in 10 Days thereafter, may be sued for in the Exchequer.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall counterfeit or forge, or procure to be counterfeited or forged, any Seal, Stamp, or Mark, to resemble any Seal, Stamp, or Mark, directed or allowed to be used by this or any former Act of Parliament relating to the Duties on Cards and Dice, or Newspapers, for the Purpose of denoting the Duties by this or any such former Act of Parliament granted, or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same, with an Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of any of the said Duties; or shall utter, vend, or sell any Paper, or any Cards, Dice, or Newspapers, liable to any Stamp Duty, with such counterfeit Stamp or Mark thereupon, knowing the same to be counterfeit; or shall privately or fraudulently use any Seal, Stamp, or Mark, directed or allowed to be used by this or any such former Act of Parliament relating to the said Stamp Duties, with Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of any of the said Duties; every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death, as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

26 Geo. 3. cap. 101. and 28 Geo. 3. cap. 25. recited;

'Act to render more effectual an Act passed in the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for erecting certain Lighthouses in the Northern Parts of Great Britain," certain additional Powers and 'Authorities were given to the said Commissioners: And whereas the four Lighthouses therein described 'have been erected, and particularly a Lighthouse at a Place called The Merchants, on the South-west 'Point of the Mull of Kintyre, which is found to be of great Importance to the Navigation of Ships 'passing to and from the Northern Channel, but not to Ships passing to and from the Frith of Clyde, 'through the Southern Channel: And whereas it would conduce greatly to the Security of such Na-'vigation through the Southern Channel, if another Lighthouse was erected upon the South End of the 'Island of Arran, or upon the little Island of Plada, near the same, which may be done without any 'Increase of the Duties authorised to be levied by the said two recited Acts:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, to erect, or cause to be erected, a Lighthouse in a convenient Situation upon the South End of the Island of Arran, or upon the Island of Plada near the same, with such other Buildings and Conveniencies as to them shall appear necessary; and also to erect, or cause to be erected, a Breast or Wharf for landing Materials necessary for the building and maintaining the said Lighthouse, and to make, or cause to be made, a Road or Roads from the said Breast or Wharf to the said Lighthouse, and to contract and agree with the Owner or Owners and Occupiers of Lands, lying and situated at the Places aforesaid, and most convenient for erecting the said Lighthouse and other Accommodations, for so much Land as may be necessary for the said Purposes, and shall pay such Rate and Consideration for the same as shall be agreed on between the said Commissioners and the Owner or Owners and Occupiers of such Lands, either by absolute Purchase, or by Payment of a Rent or certain annual Sum for the same.

and the Commissioners authorised to erect a Lighthouse on the Island of Arran or Island of Plada, &c.

'II. And whereas it may happen that the Owner or Owners, or Occupier or Occupiers of such 'Land may insist on too high Prices or Rents for the same, or through Infancy, Minority, Defect of the 'Title Deeds, Incumbrances, Debts, or other Disabilities or Causes, it may be difficult to obtain valid and 'legal Rights to some of the Properties necessary to be used for these Purposes;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That under any of the Circumstances before described, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorised to apply to the Sheriff Depute of the County where the Lands lie, and to proceed in the Manner directed by the said first mentioned Act, in order to have the Values thereof ascertained and the Right made effectual; and the several Powers and Authorities which are conferred upon them by the said two recited Acts, are hereby also given, and the same Modes of proceeding shall be followed relative to the aforesaid fifth Lighthouse, as with regard to the others already erected, no higher Duties being exigible for the whole five Lighthouses than those authorised by the said last mentioned Act, but which Duties shall be wholly exigible at the Times and in the Manner specified in the said last recited Act, without waiting till the fifth Lighthouse authorised by this present Act shall be completed.

Commissioners to proceed in the Manner directed by the recited Acts, where Differences arise relative to Pieces of Land necessary to be purchased for the Purposes of this Act, &c.;

'III. And whereas it may be necessary, for the Purpose of completing the said fifth Lighthouse, to bor-'row a further Sum of Money,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, shall be, and they are hereby impowered and declared to have full Power and lawful Authority at any Time or Times hereafter, by any Mortgage or Mortgages, or any Act or Acts, Deed or Deeds, under their Hands duly executed, to borrow or take up at a Rate of Interest not exceeding the lawful Interest, in addition to the Sums allowed to be taken up and borrowed by the said Acts, a further Sum not exceeding two thousand Pounds Sterling, upon the Security and Credit of the Duties granted as aforesaid, for answering the Expence of making and completing the said Lighthouse and other Works, and such further Sum as shall be sufficient to discharge the Expence of obtaining and passing this Act; and may assign such Duties to any Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate, who shall furnish or advance such Money, or any Part thereof, as a Security for Repayment of the same.

and may borrow a further Sum of 2,000 l.
